Grable Does Not Expect Maintenance Men to Strike; Chicago
Negotiations Continue

(By the Associated Press.)

Washington, July 18. — In the name of the common welfare and the paramount need of the American people for the production and transportation of a fuel supply, President Harding tonight, through telegrams, called upon the governors of 28 coal states to furnish protection and safeguards to men and employers willing to resume work in the industry notwithstanding the mine workers' strike.

To the efforts of the states in this district, he said, "the federal government pledges to you every assistance at its command."

Behind the telegrams there loomed the definite indication of a government decision to obtain the resumption of transportation and mining, both hampered today by labor walk-outs which high government officials inter-connected and associated.

"Merely Gesture," Says Lewis.

John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, declared the President's message to the governors to be "merely a gesture which will not produce coal in any substantial quantity," and asserted that the miners' strike would be continued.

The President said he wished to convey to the people the assurance of the "prompt and full support of the federal government, whenever and wherever you find your agencies of law and order inadequate to meet the situation."

He added that "our present duty is to guarantee security in all lawful operations for that production and distribution demanded by the necessities of the American people."

The step has become necessary, the President added, "in the name of common welfare, and the federal government pledges every assistance at its command."

Maintenance Men Won't Strike.

Chicago, July 18.—With E. F. Grable, president of the maintenance of way union, asserting that he did not expect his men to leave their work, conferences looking toward a peaceful settlement of the shopmen's strike continued today.

Announcement by the Pennsylvania Railroad that a mutually satisfactory wage agreement had been reached with its shopmen was considered by some railroad and union leaders to have had a clarifying effect on the entire situation; inasmuch as the Pennsylvania had insisted on dealing direct with its men.

Mr. Grable issued a statement tonight asserting that "the path to an adjustment is open" so far as the 40,000 members of his organization are concerned. Referring to his conference with President Harding last week, Mr. Grable said he had received assurance that Chairman Cummings of the senate interstate commerce committee expected to hold such hearings on disputed points of the labor provisions of the transportation act, particularly with reference to the living wage principle.

"The basis for the guidance of the board in the present act is not to set a just and reasonable wage," Mr. Grable's statement said. "The present issue, which should be settled by such a hearing by the interstate commerce committee of the senate and amendment to the law, is an interpretation of the phrase 'just and reasonable' and its application to a living wage."

An attempt to operate the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroad shops at Denison, Texas, has been abandoned and a temporary repair base established at Dallas. The Texas & Pacific railroad's branch line from Sherman Junction to Denison has been abandoned and the station at Denison closed.

Cancellation of both the north and southbound "Katy" fliers between Waco, Houston and Galveston was announced by the Missouri, Kansas & Texas. Six other trains were merged in three consolidations on the company's lines in Texas.

At Cincinnati the United States district attorney sent to jail a worker who refused to tell the names of five men said to have been in his automobile when an alleged assault was made on two non-union shopmen.

In Chicago policemen and railroad guards had a pistol and rifle fight with five men in an automobile who fired on a Baltimore & Ohio train transporting non-union workers. None were injured.

Seventy-five negroes were compelled to return eastward from Seligman, Arizona, after being notified that they would not be allowed to expect at Needles, Cal., where they had been expected to work for the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railway.

At Fort Worth, four non-union men employed at the Frisco shops, reported to the police early today they had been seized at a dance hall last night by 100 men, taken six miles into the country and flogged.

union foremen on a salary basis were admitted by company officials. Because they feared "a trap" the men were said to have refused the offer, although the contract stipulated more than equalled their wages by the day.

Requests of the New York Central maintenance of way men for a conference with executives of the road today brought a reply from W. J. Frapp, general chairman, saying he would arrange a meeting with union leaders at an early date.

ENGINEER KILLED BY GUARD ON ATLANTIC COAST LINE

Wilmington, N. C., July 18.—H. J. Southwell, Atlantic Coast line engineer, was shot and fatally wounded tonight by H. E. Dallas, yardmaster and special guard at the Atlantic Coast line yards. Dallas was arrested and held without bail.

Waycross, Ga., July 18.—Three companies of National Guardsmen and a machine gun unit arrived here late today for patrol duty to prevent further disorders in connection with the strike of some 1,800 union workers at the Atlantic Coast line shops.

Workers hired since the strike had been seized on the streets and maltreated for the last two days and nights, and the country people around the town were "threatening to come in and take revenge," Mayor Dan T. Coward said tonight. Many of the new employees are sons of farmers from this and adjoining counties.

It also became known that J. T. Ross, an inspector for the Coast Line, had been kidnapped about midnight last night by a party of men in an automobile. Mayor Coward said efforts to find him had been futile and that there had been threats against higher railroad officials.

Striking shopmen held a mass meeting today and adopted resolutions pledging themselves to maintain order and declaring there was no need for the troops. The town is quiet tonight.

NO MORE WALK-OUTS ON PENNSYLVANIA SYSTEM

New York, July 18.—Minor clashes between United States deputies and striking shopmen in the New York district today led United States Marshal William C. Hecht to dispatch messengers to outside shops, warning his men against action which might result in violent disruptions.

With nearly 400 deputies already distributed in strike areas, and hundreds of sheriff's deputies being recruited throughout New Jersey and New York, the federal marshal here continued to examine and arm applicants for emergency duty.

The Pennsylvania today announced completion of an agreement with its 140,000 shopmen, maintenance of way men, clerks, signalmen and miscellaneous employees, which would obviate any further walkouts on its system. Wage scales in all departments averaged higher than the Railroad Labor board's award, it was said, and provided greater differentials between non-skilled and highly-skilled classes of labor.

LEAGUE APPROVES MANDATE SYSTEM

America's Right to Voice in Governing of Colonies Is Further Recognized

(By the Associated Press.)

London, July 18.—America's right to a voice in the Allied mandates was further recognized today when the council of the League of Nations formally approved the draft of the mandates submitted by Great Britain, France and Belgium covering Palestine, France and Belgium's possessions in Africa, which embody all the suggestions raised in the Colby note and subsequent documents of the state department at Washington.

League officials say that this means the formal inauguration of the mandates system in the main colonial areas of the world. The San Minor mandates alone await confirmation.

While the action of the council recognizes America's contentions in their application to the present mandates, it is pointed out that there is no agreement whereby future protests of the United States against the execution of the mandates can be made effective. Whether the United States may seek to conclude separate treaties, similar to the Yap treaty with Great Britain, France and Belgium in order to protect her future rights in the mandated districts of Asia and Africa, is the subject of speculation here.

STRIKE PROVES "VARIATION."

Coblenz, July 18.—A succession of labor troubles is providing a little variation to the American soldiers during the ordinary routine of their occupation service. Men from the eighth infantry were dispatched to Bensdorf late Monday night in consequence of a sympathy strike which broke out in connection with the troubles at the gas works. The presence of the small American detachment sufficed to straighten out the situation.

A party of the eighth infantry, however, is remaining at Bensdorf to preserve order.

"FIVE AND TEN CENT STABLE" TO BE SOLD

Mrs. Ambrose Clark and Mrs. R. P. Smith Profit by Venture in Horse Flesh

New York, July 18.—The famous syndicate string of race horses, once dubbed by local sages of the saddle, "The Five and Ten Cent Stable," will be sold at the end of the racing season, it was announced today by the two women owners, who have made an income of $7,000 this year from a $5,000 investment in horse flesh.

The women, Mrs. E. Fenn Smith, a daughter of the late E. H. Harriman, and Mrs. F. Ambrose Clark, wife of a millionaire, think they have proved that horse racing, usually regarded as the sport of kings—either kings of royal blood or of regal bankroll—can be made a means of income for persons of moderate means. But they aren't through demonstrating, for the horses sold this year are to be replaced by a new, inexpensive string, it was stated, and the experiment will go on and on.

A year ago the two women race enthusiasts calmly set out to prove that blooded horses didn't require millions of dollars in upkeep. They bought nine yearlings, some of them at $200 and $300 apiece. One of the horses, called "Scarecrow," because of his appearance, won $2,000 in stakes before he was sold for $2,000. Another, called "Suspicion," bought for $500, has won $1,600 in prizes.

Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Clark attribute their success to an old veteran of the track, T. Simon Healy, whom they engaged as trainer for the stable. But those who "follow the pointers," give the credit to an excellent eye for horse flesh, with which both of the sports women are endowed.

POWER PROJECT UNDER WAY

Governor Miller Begins Active Work in State Development of Surplus Barge Canal Waters.

Albany, July 18.—Governor Miller this afternoon began active work in state development of surplus canal waters when he set off the first spadeful in the excavation work for the new $1,000,000 hydro-electric power dam at Crescent, on the canalized Mohawk river near here. State officials, mayors and representatives of business interests saw the charge tear loose tons of earth where the 10,000 horse power two generator plant will rest and afterwards heard Charles L. Cadie, state superintendent of public works, explain the project.

The Crescent dam project is one of the "great state projects" bill, passed by the last legislature. The second is at Vischer Ferry, near Crescent, which will add more than 6,000 horse power, giving the two plants maximum development capacity of about 16,000 horse power. Power generated is to be used in operating canal-locking apparatus, dry-docks and canal carrier repair shops. Surplus power will be sold.

ATTORNEYS ARGUE AGAINST TAXICAB BONDING STATUTE

New York, July 18.—Test of the constitutionality of the new state taxicab bonding law which would require the owner of every cab to post a $2,500 bond to guarantee payment of damage claims arising from accidents, reached the second stage today when counsel for Charles Martin, a taxi operator, appeared in general sessions court with a motion for dismissal of a charge of operating in violation of the law. Martin had submitted to arrest last week in order that a test of the law might be made.

SERIOUS DISORDERS IN BUFFALO STRIKE

Many Cars Bombed With Stones as Trolley Service Is Extended; 12 Arrests Made

Buffalo, July 18.—The most serious disorders which have marked the strike of street car men in Buffalo occurred today with the extension of car operations to the east side of the city. Many cars were bombed with stones, decayed eggs and other missiles; boulders, trees and loads of dirt were placed on tracks, and rail cars were greased on steep inclines.

Twelve persons were arrested on charges of stone-throwing and impeding traffic.

In spite of the disorders, the International Railway company tonight announced that it would extend lines tomorrow. In anticipation of further disorders, 140 additional reserve policemen were sworn in tonight for patrol duty, leaving practically the entire patrolling force of the city available for strike service.

Most of the mobs which attacked street cars today were led by women. One of these women, after she had been arrested, appealed to the mob of 500 which she led to rush the policemen and release her. The policemen drew revolvers, however, and took their prisoners to the station house.

SENATOR HITCHCOCK LEADS IN NEBRASKA PRIMARIES

Omaha, Neb., July 18.—The first ten precincts out of 1,913 in the state for United States Republican senatorial nomination, held today. John, 26; Davis, 27; Jeffers, 190; John, 82; Gustafson, 54; Yelzer, 11. Eight counties were represented in these returns.

For the Democratic nominations, Senator Hitchcock had 308; J. O. Sproyer, 116; Anthony T. Monahan, 12; first ten precincts.

Republicans to Nominate State Officers Sept. 27th

New York, July 18.—The administration of President Harding and Governor Miller were endorsed in resolutions unanimously adopted today at a meeting of the state Republican committee, which decided that candidates for state office should be nominated at a convention to be held in Albany, September 27. Chairman Glynn was authorized to recommend to the convention that Elihu Root be made temporary chairman.

H. Edmund Machold, in introducing the resolution endorsing Mr. Miller's administration, asserted that if it were not for a rule already adopted by the committee, he would urge that the governor again be designated the standard-bearer of the party.

The Machold resolution set forth that the Miller administration had been "not only economical and efficient, but progressive as well."

RUSSIANS SCORE VICTORY AT HAGUE

Demand for Joint Plenary Session Granted, and Meeting Probably Will Be Today

(By the Associated Press.)

The Hague, July 18.—The Russians won the rubber today in the game being played at The Hague. They had a good hand and played it with dash and conviction; they drove their adversaries to a corner and forced capitulation to their demand for a joint plenary session, to find a possible way of saving the conference and continuing the work, the aim of which is the reconstruction of Russia and her re-entry into the community of nations.

The Bolshevik victory was complete except possibly on one point. The non-Russian delegations insist that when the Soviet delegation meets them, probably tomorrow, the Russians will restrict their statement to absolutely new proposals and clear out proposals justifying resumption of the negotiations. The Bolsheviks took their victory calmly and were not inclined to murmur against the conditions imposed on them.

One of the Soviet delegates informed The Associated Press tonight that the Russians would meet the non-Russian delegates and endeavor to submit something new and tangible relative to compensation for confiscated property which Russia was unable to restore to the former owners. But added laughingly:

"Moratorium is a popular word nowadays. It may ask for a moratorium on the payment, for a delay of some 15 or 20 years for the payment of compensation. How can Russia do otherwise in her present economic condition?"

EXAMINE WITNESSES IN NEWBURGH WILL CONTEST

Newburgh, July 18.—The examination of witnesses who arrived here from Europe to testify in the contest which Mrs. Claire Louise Burton has instituted against the will of her late husband, Frank V. Burton, wealthy cotton broker of New York, was conducted behind closed doors here today. Only witnesses and counsel were permitted in the courtroom.

As directed by a recent order of Surrogate Elwood C. Smith, Mrs. Burton, who is alleged by the state to have been an international adventuress, was in court. A tall, blond woman, she was gowned in deep black except for a white band across her forehead which gave her a cloistered appearance.

The public was excluded from the courtroom. Counsel for the estate would not disclose the names of the witnesses.

WOMAN INDICTED FOR HAMMER MURDER UNDER EXAMINATION

Los Angeles, July 18.—Mrs. Clara Phillips, indicted for the murder of Mrs. Alberta Meadows, underwent a thorough physical examination today, her attorneys announced.

The purpose, Mrs. Phillips' attorneys said, was to determine the nature and cause of bruises and scratches on her limbs. These, the attorneys aver, were inflicted by Mrs. Meadows while she was struggling with Mrs. Phillips at the time Mrs. Meadows was slain with hammer blows.

Burton in the day, an alienist examined Mrs. Phillips and found her to be "not legally insane."

TWO FIREMEN KILLED, THREE MORE MISSING

Stubborn, Puzzling Blaze in Six-Story Warehouse Is New York's "Toughest" Fire

SMOKE BLINDS MEN

Four Million Gallons of Water Fail to Halt Clouds of Pungent Black Smoke

New York, July 18.—A stubborn, puzzling fire in a six-story warehouse operated by the Manufacturers' Trust company in the Greenwich Village section of the city, started about 8 o'clock this morning, burned through the day, and still was blazing tonight after nearly four million gallons of water had been played on it by 40 hose lines.

The toughest fire I've ever encountered," Acting Fire Chief "Smoky Joe" Martin told Major Hylan when he returned to direct his men after having been blown out of a doorway by one of a series of explosions which rocked the lower West Side.

With the flames checked but not conquered, investigation showed that two firemen had been killed, three more were missing, about 15 persons had been taken to hospitals seriously injured, and more than 175 had received first aid treatment at three emergency stations opened by the Red Cross. In addition, about 500 families were driven from their homes in the Bohemian quarter and tonight were barred by the police from returning, lest the warehouse walls collapse.

The outstanding feature of the fire was the mysterious, pungent black smoke that rolled out of the building from the first of the blasts. It came in never-ending clouds, settling down about the base of the storehouse and blinding the fire fighters, who rigged great searchlights in their efforts to pierce the darkness.

Experts in the employ of the city sought all day long to solve the cause of the fire.

Damage Not Yet Estimated.

Fire Commissioner Drennan, who declared that no permit had been issued to store explosives or chemicals in the warehouse, worked feverishly to ascertain what triggered the houses there. The warehouse, however, and the property damage could not be accurately estimated without a check of the contents, said to include newsprint, rubber, rice and epsom salts, but it was evident that it would run into the hundreds of thousands.

The known dead: Fire Lieutenant J. Schoppemeyer, killed by falling debris.

Fireman James Carroll, attached to a Brooklyn company, killed when his engine struck a curb while responding to an alarm.

The names of firemen and policemen appeared most frequently on the list of injured. About a score were struck by building material falling from the warehouse by the explosion or by falling bricks or timbers, but most of those treated at the emergency stations had been overcome by the thick smoke. Many returned to their duties after having been nearly suffocated, only to report again later for further treatment.

Firemen answering the first alarm found flames shooting up an elevator shaft at the Jano street entrance to the building, which extends through the block to 12th street.

Flames Reach Upper Floors.

After the first explosion, there were rumbling noises within the structure and when apparatus answered the second alarm, flames were seen from their egress and were mushrooming out on the upper floors.

Then came the explosion that hurled firemen and policemen across the street.

A little later, Schoppemeyer led his men into the building, to be met by another blast which lifted the roof. Driven back, he remained on the street just in time to be killed by debris. He died on the pavement, with a priest administering the last rites of the church.

By this time, policemen were driving to the street occupants of the apartment houses which surround the warehouse. Many of these—painters, carpenters and writers—were carrying their tools and articles, carrying their tools of art. Then bluecoats stood guard over the vacated dwellings, forestalling any raids by looters. Many of the policemen were overcome.

The crowds which assembled were held four blocks from the fire. Many mounted roofs, however, and sent a cloud of black smoke up the rim of a building, watched the fire fighters. Soon the heat became so intense and the smoke so blinding that the firemen had to set their nozzles on tripods and withdrew nearly 100 feet.

District Attorney Ranton, following a conference with fire department officials, said today that an explosion of a case of magnesium powder caused the fire. He said that 38 cases of magnesium had been taken into the building since March 5, and that some of them were being taken out by way of the elevator when one was dropped and exploded.

The heat, he declared, ignited the other cases, and then followed the great explosion as flames began to seep through the powder.

HARRY GREB AND MANAGER SUSPENDED

First Conqueror of Dave Rosenberg Will Be Declared Lightweight Champion

New York, July 18.—Harry Greb of Pittsburgh, light-heavyweight champion, and his manager, George Engle, were indefinitely suspended today by the New York Boxing commission from further participation in bouts in this state because Greb has not signed a contract to box Dave Rosenberg, as he was directed to do.
With Johnny Wilson, the original title-holder, and Greb, the original challenger, both pronounced passe, the boxing commission today offered to name the first conqueror of Rosenberg the champion, although contending that Rosenberg does not now hold the title. He first must defeat the first acceptable challenger who supports a formal deal with a forfeit of $2,500.
Greb is the third world champion to be barred from this state. Wilson and Johnny Kilbane, of Cleveland and featherweight king—excluding New York—being the others.

Toth and Richards will be joined later, it is said, by Henry Sullivan, of Lowell, who has made several attempts to swim the channel, and by Walter Patterson of Bridgeport, Conn.

SHERMAN LAKE VICTORIOUS

The Actors team defeated the Meredith-Delhi nine on the Sherman lake diamond on Sunday by a score of 13 to 12 in a game that proved exciting every minute of play for the 300 spectators. The Sherman lake outfit won the game in the seventh inning when Pondolino, with the bases full and the count three and two, knocked out a homer. The Actors used two pitchers, Getman, formerly with the Schenectady Kayes, and Posthill, extwirl for the East New York nine. A feature of the game was a remarkable catch by Manager Vincent of the Actors of a high foul which traveled through several layers of tree branches before reaching his hands. The score by innings:

DENIES RAILROADS ARE SEEKING TO BREAK DOWN UNIONS

"We Have About All the Government in Railroads the Business Will Stand, Official Declares"

Spokane, Wash., July 18.—Many persons suppose that the railroads were turned back to their owners and managers in 1920, but "this is only one of the half-truths that will not bear investigation," declared Charles Dillon, assistant to the chairman of the western committee on public relations of the Association of Railway Executives, in an address before the Chamber of Commerce here today.
Mr. Dillon also asserted that nothing could be farther from the truth than the impression that the railroads "are trying to break down the unions, and that they are eager to reduce the men's wages."

"The truth is we have about all the government in railroad right now that the business will stand. It is the government which says what the rates are to be and how much the roads may be permitted to earn if they can do it; it is the government which controls wages and it controls the conditions under which the men shall work. All the reports are made and the book-keeping of the railroads is done according to the rules of the United States government through the Interstate Commerce Commission and upon forms prescribed by that commission. There is scarcely any item of management not directly under the scrutiny of the government at Washington or Chicago."

"We are now facing an entirely new order, a new labor condition. When the United States Railroad Labor Board made the largest advance in wages ever recorded, amounting, indeed, to more than $200,000,000 a year, the railroads accepted the decision without resistance. The men at that time did not question the jurisdiction of the board in making this enormous advance."

"The railroads promised, last October, to pass on to the public in reduced rates savings in operating expenses resulting from wage cuts. Rates have been reduced since last January $400,000,000—$265,000,000, approximately, more than wages have been cut, based on the earnings in 1921, or $500,000,000 if we compare with 1920."

"If total earnings do not increase very materially, the rate reductions and the recent wage cuts will allow the railroads about 3 1/2 per cent. on their valuation. There is a difference of about $443,000,000 between this 3 1/2 per cent. and the 5 1/2 per cent. which the Interstate Commerce commission says the roads may earn."

"If the net return from your business were reduced as the net return of the roads has been you probably would close it out."

"Your business will prosper largely according to the volume of roads can handle promptly. The whole present controversy, therefore, becomes as much your concern as it is the concern of the railroads, because unless investors are assured a reasonable reward new capital will not be available—and without this it will not be possible to provide adequate facilities."

"The tie that binds this people together in national unity is the railroad tie and if it isn't kept in good repair the neglect can easily create a national calamity for which every man and every family will have to pay."

The public, the speaker said, will be benefitted by the recent rate reductions only as these reductions, in part, are reflected in lower prices instead of in increased profits.
Disraeli Master of Dialogue.
The talk of Mr. Henry James' personages is charmingly equable and appropriate, but it is also trivial and tame; the talk in Anthony Trollope is surprisingly natural and abundant, but it is also commonplace and immemorable; the talk of George Meredith is always eloquent and fanciful, but the eloquence is too often dark and the fancy too commonly inhuman. What Disraeli's people have to say is not always original or profound, but it is crisply and happily phrased and uttered. It reads well, its impression seldom fails of permanency. His "Wit and Wisdom" is a kind of Talker's Guide or Handbook of Conversation. How should it be otherwise, seeing that it contains the characteristic utterances of a great artist in life renowned for memorable speech?—W. E. Henley.

BOY SENTENCED TO INDUSTRY.

Youngster Stole Money From Father at Behest of Older Companion.
Frank Dagosta, a lad but 14 years of age, residing at 8 Wells avenue, was sentenced to the State Industrial school at Industry yesterday by Judge Huntington for inducing Louis Bertuzzi, 10 years old, to steal money from his father. John, an ill 390 had been taken of which $70 has been recovered.
Bertuzzi had been missing sums of money from his pockets and from about the house since July 1. Yesterday he missed $20 and suspecting that his son knew something about it he questioned the lad, who said that the Dagosta boy had been persuading him to steal and that he had given all he had taken to the older lad. The man went to the Dagosta home and obtained the $20 and then had Frank arrested. The police recovered the other $50 after Dagosta had admitted that it was in his home. The young lad had obeyed his older companion implicitly and had stolen whenever he told him to, giving him the money. On July 4, Dagosta gave the youngster $2 with which to purchase fireworks but that amount constituted the entire gain which the lad got from the thefts.

Use of Tea in Japan.
In Japan, tea is partaken of not only at meal time, but also at intervals throughout the day. The cups are very small, and neither milk nor sugar is used. The Japanese tea, unlike Ceylon or other teas, must not be made with boiling water or it will become very bitter, and the finer the quality of the tea the more attention must be paid to the temperature of the water used. In serving good tea the Japanese put a tablespoonful of tea in a small teapot and pour hot (not boiling) water over it. It is then served in small cups. When the water in the pot is exhausted, more hot water is poured in, and in this way the tea can be used several times.—East and West News.

GENUINE STEWARDSHIP.

The will of the late George I. Wilber, of which some of the more important provisions were made public on Monday, was a general theme of comment yesterday. This was naturally the case, alike because of the prominence of the individual, the reputation for genuine beneficence which was his, and the general understanding that with his demise something more considerable than even the benefactions of a lifetime would be disclosed. In this conviction, the public as a whole was not disappointed. The provisions of the will as far as made known were discussed, and the universal verdict was as gratifying to his many friends as no doubt to himself, if in the undiscovered country he knows the mind and the words of his fellow citizens in Oneonta.

There are, it may safely be premised, three obligations which the individual owes above all others. One is the obligation to God, which is in general expressed through the church of one's choice. The second is obligation to the community in which he lives, which may be expanded to mean not only his city but his state and nation. The third is the obligation which he owes to his own immediate family. On the way in which these obligations are fulfilled depends the quality of the individual's citizenship. There are some who fulfill one of these obligations at the expense of others, some who fulfill to the letter two of them; but he is a rare example of thoughtful consideration and of balanced judgment who either in life or death fulfills them all.

Bearing these facts in mind, and using them as in some sort a measure of attainment, it must be said that George I. Wilber comes in his final testament close to the suggested ideal. To the Methodist Episcopal church the benefactions which he has made are alike generous and well-considered. There are to them no hampering restrictions, and if the consummation of these acts of giving to the local society is for a short time delayed, the reasons which he gives are apparently adequate and are marked by that thoughtful foresight which was a prominent characteristic of the donor. Moreover by these gifts there will be continued for years to come those special benefactions through the church of his faith in which he has always been interested.

To the city of Oneonta he has made possible the carrying out of the heart of the town and suitable for any public use which in years to come may seem desirable. And for the third obligation—that to his family, which may in this instance be stretched to include a wide circle of friends outside the pale of consanguinity—it is noted that every relative was remembered, not carelessly or indifferently, but with due consideration for their needs or degree of kinship; while of friends and business associates he has by no means been neglectful. It is a fine thing which Mr. Wilber has done in every way in a will which through its provisions fitsly closes the circle of an active, useful, thoughtful life. The city of Oneonta in particular acknowledges its obligation, and through generations to come the name of this far-sighted citizen who in the earlier days of the community had vision of the future years and wisely planned for them, will gratefully be remembered.

COMMENTS OF THE PRESS

The Hague Fiasco.

Events at Genoa made inevitable the failure of its postscript, the Hague conference. The Hague conference, in reality, was dead before it was born.

Of what use is it to hold economic conferences when one of the most important parties refuses to recognize the plain laws of economics? Why discuss financial aid to a government that boasts that it is not bound by any debts? Why talk of revival of industry with a system that gives private interests no room to function?

Neither at The Hague nor at Genoa was the real problem squarely faced—namely, that Bolshevism must be ended before Russian reconstruction can begin. At both the Russians sought to make war rather than peace.—[New York Tribune.]

May Neutralize the Baltic.

The proposition of the premiers of the Baltic states to neutralize the Baltic sea is interesting, and it suggests extension over the seven seas. The maritime nations might agree to neutralize all navigable waters, and then the millennium would be near at hand. There would still be armaments, but they would be limited in their operation, and if all the seas should be neutralized it would not be difficult to get an agreement on the reduction of armaments.—[Philadelphia Record.]

Getting Undesirables.

The action of the state highways department in revoking 99 drivers' licenses during the first six months of the year, is a fair beginning in the elimination of the man who is making roads unsafe for fellow drivers and pedestrians. That 87 of the 99 are guilty of intoxication is a mere hint of the extent to which the drunken motorist has found his way into where he has no business to be. From January to July the department placed 112 names on the highways blacklist, which runs for a full year and of this number 82 were proved to have been intoxicated when driving.—[Pittsburgh Dispatch.]

Restoring Santo Domingo.

That the President is not in sympathy with the unjustifiable seizure of Santo Domingo by Mr. Wilson is obvious from his latest plan to effect the withdrawal of American forces from the republic. The delay since Mr. Harding took office has been primarily due to the slowness in agreeing upon a method of evacuation. The new plan provides for a provisional government, composed of Dominicans and chosen by Dominicans.—[New York Tribune.]

The Chronic German Crisis.

The German "crisis" which so excited Berlin—and London—last week and has suddenly disappeared. The German republic did not fall; it is plugging along pretty much the same as ever; indeed, it seemed a day or two ago that even needed changes would not take place.—[New York Times.]

Not a Fading Name.

With young T. R. a candidate for senator on the Republican ticket and Franklin D. running for the same office on the Democratic ticket, the family may be split, but the name will not fade from the public memory.—[New York Tribune.]

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Board of Methodist Church Pays Tribute to Memory of George I. Wilber.

At a meeting of the official board of the Methodist society of Oneonta held yesterday, the following resolution of respect to the memory of George I. Wilber was adopted: Whereas, a Divine Providence has created a vacancy in the membership of the official board of the Methodist society of Oneonta in the death of George I. Wilber and whereas Mr. Wilber rendered a long and eminently able service to our church as a member of this body, whose wise council, prudent foresight, and unswerving devotion to Christian principles were and will continue to be an inspiration to this society and whereas we recognize the irretrievable loss which our board has sustained.

Resolved, that the official board of the Methodist Society of Oneonta offer this public testimonial of appreciation and respect for this wise councilor and able co-worker and direct a copy thereof to be spread upon our minutes, and copies to be transmitted to his surviving brother and to The Oneonta Daily Star.

GOOD CROPS IN NEW YORK

June Rains Helped Conditions—Rainfall in New York Averaged Eight Inches.

Albany, July 18.—Recent reports show that in this state the heavy rainfall of June helped more crops than it hurt and, taken as a whole, crops are in better shape here than they are in other parts of the country.

The weather bureau records show that the rainfall over the state during June averaged about eight inches, an inch more than the highest previous June record and more than double the amount usually expected. This naturally caused a large amount of damage to crops on low lying and poorly drained land, but on the better drained fields most crops made unusual growth.

According to John B. Shepard, who now has charge of estimating the crops of the state for both the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and the New York State Department of Farms and Markets, the hay crop, which was rather poor a month ago, now promises a yield of 10 per cent. better than usual, timothy, clover and alfalfa all being unexpectedly heavy.

Corn, winter wheat, oats, barley, rye, peas, cabbage and tomatoes were each from 1 to 6 per cent. better on the first of the month than they have averaged on the corresponding date during the last ten years. Beans and late planted potatoes were, in many cases, hurt by the excessive moisture, but as the weather since the first of the month has been more favorable, they are now expected to produce about average yields. Onions, which are grown mostly on reclaimed swamp land, were quite seriously hurt.

The fruit crops also are all better than usual, so when the reports from all crops are combined, it is estimated that, in proportion to the acreage planted, crops in this state will produce 8 per cent. more than the average during the last ten years. In this respect, New York is exceptionally fortunate, for in the states south of Virginia and west of Ohio, crop prospects are on the whole rather poor, and in the country as a whole, crops average 2 per cent. poorer than usual.

LOCAL MENTION

The concert to have been given at Brown's park this evening by Keeton's band, has been postponed until Thursday evening.

The Sunshine class of the Elm Park Methodist church will hold an ice cream social this evening at 7:30 o'clock on the church lawn. Company G band will give a concert.

At the meeting of Farmers post, G. A. R., held yesterday afternoon, it was decided to hold only one meeting per month during the next three months. The next meeting will be on Tuesday, August 1.

Rainfall during the early part of the afternoon caused a postponement of the game scheduled for yesterday between the Giants and the Tokio Baseball club. The disbandment of the Elmira Athletics left Saturday open and the Japanese team will play here on that day.

City Chamberlain C. H. Bowdish reports that of the city, state and county taxes due on February 24 last, $4,782.96 remains to be paid and that $1,040.60 of the school tax due on October 24, 1921, is still back. Notices have been sent to the delinquents and unless the taxes are paid by August 15 the property affected will be advertised and sold as prescribed by law.

Postmaster Frank G. Sherman has received orders from the post office department at Washington to allow clerks in the local office half holidays on Saturday during the summer months provided the condition of the work is such that the men can be spared. Mr. Sherman states that this will be done whenever possible but that he has no few clerks and such a large volume of business that the order will have little effect upon the local office.

D. & H. BARRACKS COMPLETED
Company is Housing and Feeding Workers Near Roundhouse—Layout Resembles Army Camp.

The barracks erected by the D. & H. company near the roundhouse for the use of the men imported to replace strikers are completed with the exception of minor details and the 140 men working in the shops are sleeping and eating there. There are two dormitories, each 24 by 100 feet in size, constructed of wood in a manner resembling army barracks. Proper ventilation is effected by plenty of windows and by special arrangement along the ridge. The men sleep in two tier bunks, each being furnished with springs and mattress and with sheets, pillow cases and blankets. A smaller building, not yet completed, will contain offices and a reading and smoking room. Twelve baths are being installed in another building a short distance away.

The dining hall and kitchen are located in a building of the same size as the dormitories and situated between them. The kitchen is in the center so that the meals can be served from two sides and contains two large ranges and other necessary equipment for feeding a large number of men. The men eat at long wooden tables. Electric fans have been provided and all windows are screened.

A Star representative ate the evening meal Monday evening at the invitation of company officials and found the food of good quality and quantity and served in a clean manner. The camp is in charge of Edward Ellens of New York city who has had considerable experience in like emergencies in various parts of the country. There are about 180 men in the camp at the present time including a few negroes who work about the kitchen and dining room and keep the buildings clean.

Hello! Building and Loan Talks
Feeling pretty pert in these queer times, don't you? Haven't got any kick coming, have you? And it's no use kicking. Building and Loan Secretary Hoover, Uncle Sam and the state help you to roll up and keep your two and one quarter million dollars safe where you can get it at any time or leave it with me to roll up at compound interest to beat the band? Say, there are lots of others who've got a kick coming and they're kinder jealous of you. Wouldn't it be wise to tell 'em about me and how I am now stuffing a new big bunch of little fellers and how I help them by making their lonesome dollar earn as much as the rich man's dollar, with same safety and thus get on easy street? Let's tell 'em about me, so that they won't have any kick coming! In the safe and fine Oneonta Building and Loan association. advt 1t

ASK ACTION ON ZONING

Fred Bliss Seeks Franchise Along Normal Line in Event Trolley Line is Abandoned—Addition to VanWick Building Projected—Mrs. A. L. Cook Succeeds Late Husband as Scales of Weights and Measures.

Oneonta city will hereafter use voting machines in place of the paper ballots the common council at its regular meeting last night voting without dissent to enter into a contract with the Automatic Registering Machine corporation of Jamestown for the purchase of nine machines at a cost of $8,460. Plus the interest charge until the machines are paid for, it being the claim of the manufacturers that the machines will pay for themselves in five years in savings effected.

Chairman Lauren of the finance committee reported that it has been found that the number of districts cannot be reduced after July 1 and that the company has offered to loan three machines for use this fall if nine are purchased, the latter number being sufficient after the present year, the number of districts being reduced before July first next to six. Three of the districts will need two machines.

It was voted to issue bonds for the payment for the machines, the same to be paid in five annual installments together with interest commencing in 1923. The machines will be used at the election in November.

Bliss Seeks Bus Line.

Attorney Owen C. Becker presented a petition from Fred Bliss of Cooperstown for a bus line to run from the Union station to the Normal school building, following the route of the Bliss proposes if the franchise is granted to purchase a new bus costing around $5,000 with a seating capacity of 25 people at least and to operate the same from 6:20 a. m. until 11:05 p. m. on a half hour schedule between the station and the Normal school. The rate of fare according to the proposal is to be 8 cents with 50 tickets sold for $2.50. Mr. Bliss gives assurance that he can keep the bus in operation in all 17 days of weather.

Mr. Becker speaking for Mr. Bliss, stated that the Southern New York railway has asked for approval of its determination to abandon the Normal line and because of the irregular operation and the cost of rebuilding the line and installing new equipment that the public is demanding a new line. Mr. Becker urged that Mr. Bliss is confident that he can give more satisfactory service than the trolley is giving.

Mr. Becker further assured the council that the trolley company has consented to an arrangement for transfers with the proposed bus line similar to that now prevailing on the trolley line so that there will be no reduction in the service that can be secured. It was stated that the petition is predicated upon the request of the trolley company being granted.

A resolution was granted calling a public hearing upon the application of a franchise to be held at the council rooms on Tuesday evening, August 15th, at 8 o'clock at which time all persons desiring will be heard.

Mayor Miller stated that an informal request had been made for a franchise by Mrs. Louis Driggs some weeks ago in case the trolley is requested and expressed a belief that she should be heard at the time if she desired.

Zoning Proposal Presented

Secretary Everett Hicks of the Chamber of Commerce presented and read a letter from the Chamber addressed to the council reporting that after five forums had discussed the proposed zoning ordinance for Oneonta that the members of the Chamber had voted 17 to 57 in favor of zoning and requesting the council to have suitable zoning ordinance drafted and submitted to the residents of the city at public hearings.

The letter suggests that garages in residential sections are menacing the value of residential property and other causes are arising. The letter suggests that competent and experienced engineers be engaged at a cost of about $2,500 to prepare and submit to the citizens of the city such ordinances.

Mr. Hicks presented two letters from experienced engineers proposing to perform the service for the city at a cost of about $2,700 not including the expense of presenting the proposed ordinances to the city the expense to be included in the 1922 budget.

Owen C. Becker, esq., was present and in behalf of the chamber urged consideration, asserting that it is nothing elaborate or at all extreme is desired but that existing conditions threaten to destroy realty values and that it will be better for all concerned to have residential, industrial and mercantile districts with some building code that will enforce an established porch line on residential streets.

M. W. Edmunds of River street spoke declaring that parties are proposing to erect a small store building at the corner of River and Gilbert streets on the street line to detriment of residential property in that section. He said that there are now nine small stores in the sixth ward and that no additional ones are required to meet needs. He wished something could be done to prevent, though admitting that he had not studied zoning sufficiently to be prepared to endorse it without reservation.

VanWick Building Plans.

Fire Chief Choate presented to the council plans prepared by architect Orlo Epps for an addition to the rear of the VanWick block on Dietz street connecting it with the garage in the rear.

Mr. Epps was heard in relation to the plans and he said that it is proposed to use the walls of the VanWick block and of the garage for two sides of the building and the concrete surface now in existence for the floor of the building. Two ends and a roof will be constructed, the latter of slag after approved plans. The lower floor will be left largely unfinished in the interior and the second floor finished.

A resolution was passed, giving consent to the erection of the proposed building upon the filing of the

BASEBALL SCHEDULE ALTERED

Giants Idle Today and Will Play Stamford, Here Thursday and There Friday—Japs Here Saturday—Oneonta Versus Brooklyn Giants at Elmira Sunday.

Cancellations, team disbandments and other managerial got getting difficulties have caused several changes in the baseball schedule for the remainder of the week. The Giants were to have played at Stamford today but Booking Manager Crouse received word that the game must be played at a later date if at all and so Budwell and his cohorts will enjoy a rest today.

On Thursday Stamford will appear here, in a game, the proceeds from which will go toward defraying the cost of the Community Athletic association motor bus. A large number of advance tickets have been sold and there is certain to be a crowd that will tax the capacity of the field. Memories of the wonderful battle between Stamford and Oneonta last Friday are still lingering in the minds of local fans and Thursday's game is being looked forward to with great interest. Stamford has been going in fine shape recently. On Sunday six of the men played on a team which defeated the Detroit Tigers, Carroll, who may pitch here Thursday letting the league down with three hits Monday Stamford defeated Vincent Astor's Rhinebeck team on one hit. The game with the Troy Trojans is scheduled for Friday here has been cancelled and the Giants will go to Stamford instead. On Saturday the Jap team will be played here instead of the Elmira Athletics, as originally scheduled.

Arrangements have been practically completed whereby the Giants will play the Brooklyn Royal Giants at Elmira on Sunday. Oneonta has moved a good drawing card in Elmira and no colored team has played in that city for two years so the game should attract a large crowd.

COLLISION ON COLLIER'S ROAD

Utican's Sedan Damaged When Struck by Binghamton Touring Car.

The Franklin sedan of D. H. Knox, a traveling salesman for the firm of Baker-Vawter in Utica is in Binghamton's garage undergoing repairs made necessary by its unsuccessful attempt yesterday afternoon about 5:30 o'clock to climb a tree along the Colliers road, a short distance outside the city.

Mr. Knox was driving toward the city and was proceeding cautiously, owing to the slippery condition of the road, when he was hit by a large touring car belonging to the Binghamton trucking firm of Collins & Finch which was leaving the city. The driver of this car, who had been trailing behind a Ford car, attempted to pass the Ford and apparently did not notice Mr. Knox approaching. He struck the left front wheel of the Franklin a glancing blow and the rear wheel a heavier blow. This threw the Franklin across-wise of the road and it ended up against a tree on the other side.

Mr. Knox was slightly bruised but suffered no other injury. The damage to his car was confined to two broken wheels and damaged headlights and radiator, the engine being unhurt. It was later towed to the garage. The Binghamton touring car was unharmed and was able to proceed on its way after the driver had offered to settle for the damage to the Knox car, he accepting responsibility for the collision.

Many Canines Without Licenses.

The census taken by the police of dog owners in the city has been completed and certified to the Dog License Bureau of the State Department of Farms and Markets. The list shows a total of 315, a number probably much less than the number actually owned in the city and in this connection persons are reminded that the fact that a dog is not indicated on the census does not exempt the owner from obtaining a license. Nearly a hundred persons shown by the census to own dogs have not applied for a license. A delinquent list will be prepared and a letter sent to each owner. Failure within a given time thereafter to obtain a license will place the owner liable to a fine of $10 and costs. Unlicensed animals may also be seized and destroyed.

Claim for $5,000 Presented.

Miss Dorothy E. Gould of 521 Chrysler avenue, Schenectady, a Normal student, presented to the city a claim for $5,000 for personal injuries alleged to have been sustained on Sunday, May 21, last, when the automobile in which she was returning to this city from her home, encountered, it is alleged, a dangerous place in the pavement near the corner of Main and North Sixth streets.

By reason of which the motor car was thrown out of its course and in front of a trolley car and she was thrown out of the car and upon the pavement. She alleges that she sustained five fractured ribs and sustained other injuries which prevented her from completing her work at the school and which resulted in impaired health. In her communication she threatens to institute suit against the city unless the claim is settled. Hon. George L. Boakes is her attorney.

After a discussion in which some of the aldermen expressed a belief that the place was not in a dangerous condition at the time and that no accident would have resulted had the car been driven in a careful and proper manner, the claim was referred to City Attorney George L. Gibbs.

A second claim resulting from the same accident was presented by Raymond McCune of 1843 Broadway Schenectady, the owner and driver of the car in which Miss Gould was riding. He claims the car was damaged to the extent of $257.77. Mr. Boakes is also attorney for McCune. The claim was referred also to Mr. Gibbs.

Seeks Damages for Fall.

Mayor Miller reported that Frank Underiner, a D. & H. engineer residing at 22 Cliff street, had presented a claim to him for damages sustained by Mrs. Underiner on February 20, last, when she fell out of a walkway in front of the store of the Stevens Hardware company and suffered a broken arm.

Mr. Underiner alleges that she was confined to her own home unable to perform household duties for nine weeks and later went to her old home for several weeks of rest and recuperation. He thinks that they should be paid damages to the extent of $1,000, rather than have suit with the city would settle for $250.

Aldermen speaking, said there would result no end of claims against the city if payment were made in any case for falls on icy walks for which climatic conditions are responsible. They advocated the rejection of the claim. No action was taken.

Want Designated Place.

In a communication addressed to the council, the operators of the Cooperstown and Worcester bus lines presented a request that some place be designated in the business section where their respective busses might wait for passengers, one which would be an improvement on the way of travel.

It was suggested, an intimation was given that on South Main just off Main would be satisfactory.

One alderman suggested that a garage or the public parking place on Broad street would be suitable, but added that it did not seem to him that it is up to the city to provide a place. It was intimated that neither bus line has franchise in the city. No action resulted.

Mrs. Cook Succeeds Husband.

Mayor Miller announced the appointment of Mrs. Adin L. Cook as sealer of weights and measures for the city to succeed her late husband, explaining that she was familiar with and competent for the work. On motion of Alderman Lauren the nomination was confirmed.

School Bonds Voted.

A resolution was passed directing the issue of 80 $500 bonds for the purpose of defraying the cost of the site and the erection of the Mitchell street school now in process of construction, the same to bear 5 per cent interest and to be payable $4,000 annually until paid, 1922 to 1932, and the city clerk was instructed to advertise for bids for these bonds, the same not to be sold at less than par and accrued interest. City Chamberlain Bowdish was authorized to borrow the sum of $40,000 upon this bond issue for the purpose of meeting payments now due.

That Smoke Nuisance.

Attorney Gibbs reported that he had interviewed Mr. Keeton relative to the soft coal smoke nuisance from the Quality Mills on East street and that Mr. Keeton had given assurance that anthracite coal would be used as soon as it can be procured.

Mr. Gibbs also stated that Mr. McFee had promised that only a limited amount of shavings would be placed in the fire box at the mill of McFee & Borst at a time and that there would probably be no further cause for complaint.

No Legal Relief Known.

Mrs. Vincent, acting clerk, reported that petitioners were asking what action is to be taken upon the protest filed to the construction of a garage at the corner of Main street and Walling Boulevard. Chairman Bolton of the law committee answered by declaring that no existing laws or ordinances authorize the council to act in efforts to prevent the construction of the garage.

To Improve Myrtle Avenue.

A communication from the board of public works asking the council to concur in a decision to place curb and gutter along Myrtle avenue and such concurrence was voted without dissent.

To Assist Traffic.

Alderman Francis suggested that a request be presented to the trolley company asking that motormen on cars approaching the switch on Chestnut street near Ponda avenue be instructed to wait on the main and not take the switch until the car coming from the opposite direction is also about to enter the switch and thus gives motor and other traffic the use of the street. When trolley cars are in the switch motor cars are either taking the wrong side of them or are in danger of colliding with the curb or poles at the side. Traffic is either delayed or endangered.

Mayor Miller gave assurance that the suggestion, which he considered

Railway Shop Strike

Strikes are acts of persons who fail to personally study the questions involved; some times due to lack of information, some times due to lack of appreciation of the situation, but most often due to coercion or to the blind following of misstatements of labor leaders.

The strike of the machinists and other shop workers of the railroads is now two weeks old, and so much has been said that it may be well to review the facts:

The strike is due to the lack of secret ballots.

In taking a strike vote a man must sign his name and vote to stay with his employers. Such a vote on his part is always looked upon by the radical element as treachery to the union, and so through fear a man either votes for a strike or fails to mark his ballot. Unmarked votes are either counted in favor of a strike or are thrown out. Thus a call for a strike is always affirmative.

Were the ballot secret the result in a majority of cases would be against a strike, as has been illustrated in the last week in the vote taken in a very large industrial concern located in the Capitol District.

The ballots taken by the Shop Crafts were for a strike as a result of the decisions of the Labor Board and were three in number:

- (a) Against contract work let by a very few roads,
- (b) Pay for actual work done on Sundays at the same rate as on week-days instead of pay for 90 minutes for each 60 minutes worked.
- (c) The reduction of wages.

The first ballot was of interest only to a few men in the country, and as contracting work has been practiced for many years, is not something at all new.

The second ballot was to try to force payment for work not performed. The railroad business is necessary twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week, and a man accepts employment fully aware that Sunday work is expected of him.

The third ballot was an attempt to keep up wages augmented from time to time since the commencement of the war, and finally raised by Decision No. 2 of the Labor Board, May 1, 1920, to 188.6 per cent of the pre-war rate. By decision No. 147, promulgated by the Board July 1, 1921, the wages of the shop crafts were reduced to 162.4 per cent of the pre-war rate, and by the decision No. 1036 this same Board reduced these wages to 139.5 per cent above the pre-war rate, leaving the rates still considerably above those paid for similar work in other industries.

The first question had not been raised on most roads; the second and third had been a matter of discussion and had, through failure to agree locally, been referred to the Labor Board in conformity to the Transportation Act of 1920.

The increases in wages and the rules prescribed by the Labor Board when the same were favorable to the men were accepted by them, and while they seemed excessive to the management of the roads, the decisions were accepted by the railroads and put into effect. So soon, however, as the decisions based upon the trend of the times reduced the wages and deprived the men of pay for work not performed, the Labor leader fearing for his position, which is dependent on getting higher pay or concessions in rules, called for a strike vote.

On July 1st, Mr. B. M. Jewell, as President of the Railway Employees' Department of the American Federation of Labor, called a strike in protest against the findings of the Labor Board and refused to attend a call of that Board to a meeting with the railroad executives on June 30th, notifying the Board that the members of the organization represented by him and his associates were no longer employees of the railroads.

The Labor Board, on the 3rd of July, in a resolution passed by it said that, as the law provided for only roads or their employees to bring cases before it, only new employees or those remaining loyal to the companies might in the future be heard, and that further: "IT MUST LIKEWISE BE CONCEDED THAT THE MEN WHO REMAIN IN THE SERVICE AND THOSE WHO ENTER IT ANEW ARE WITHIN THEIR RIGHTS IN ACCEPTING SUCH EMPLOYMENT; THAT THEY ARE NOT STRIKEBREAKERS; - - - THAT THEY HAVE THE MORAL AS WELL AS THE LEGAL RIGHT TO ENGAGE IN SUCH SERVICE OF THE AMERICAN PUBLIC - - - AND THAT THEY ARE ENTITLED TO THE PROTECTION OF EVERY DEPARTMENT AND BRANCH."

On July 8th the Chairman of the Labor Board issued the following: "THE SHOP CRAFTS HAVE BEEN FAIRLY HEARD BEFORE THE LABOR BOARD. THEY HAVE APPEALED FROM THE SOBER CONSERVATIVE JUDGMENT OF THIS BOARD TO THE STRIKE, WITH ALL ITS INEVITABLE, UN-AMERICAN SUBVERSION OF LAW AND ORDER - - -

"UPON ONE QUESTION, THE STRIKING EMPLOYEES SHOULD NOT BE DECEIVED. THEIR LEADER HAS SAID THAT THE STRIKERS ARE NO LONGER EMPLOYEES OF THE RAILWAYS, AND THEY HAVE THUS AUTOMATICALLY ABANDONED ALL THE RIGHTS THEY POSSESSED UNDER THEIR AGREEMENTS AND UNDER THE DECISIONS OF THIS BOARD, INCLUDING THEIR SENIORITY. THIS IS NOT THE BOARD'S ACTION. IT IS THEIR OWN ACTION. - - -

IT IS TO BE HOPED THAT THE LEADERSHIP OF THESE ORGANIZATIONS WILL PERCEIVE THE HOPELESSNESS OF ANY EFFORT TO INTIMIDATE THE AMERICAN PUBLIC AND WILL FIND A WAY TO LEAD THE MEN BACK INTO THE ADOPTION OF PEACEFUL METHODS BEFORE SOME REGRETTABLE CATASTROPHE HAS OCCURRED THAT WILL DETRACT FROM THE UNQUESTIONED STRENGTH AND USEFULNESS OF THE ORGANIZATIONS INVOLVED, IF IT DOES NOT DESTROY THEM OUTRIGHT."

The Delaware and Hudson Company is rapidly filling up its shop forces to their normal number.

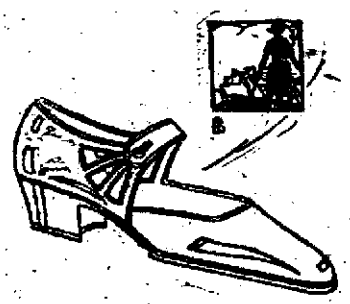

Machinists, Boilermakers, Blacksmiths, Sheet Metal Workers, Electricians and Car Men may make application for employment to the Freight Agent, Oneonta.
